

cca.voice Magazine

The CCA members' magazine is sent quarterly to over 6,000 local authority decision-makers including Council Leaders, Deputy Council Leaders and Executive Members.

The magazine includes articles written by key figures in local government, the CCA Board and its staff. It regularly covers the activities of DLUHC and Conservative councils as well as successful campaigns. The magazine features campaigning advice and a comprehensive by-election results analysis, as well as features on Party Conference and local government events.

Advertising is a convenient and effective way of targeting the key players in local government.

cca.voice is a 16 page A5 magazine. It is typically distributed in March, June, September and December.
